

Sonas

a path to a new future

88% of women who suffer domestic violence do not leave because they have nowhere to go (Women's Aid, 1995).
Sonas Housing Association was set up in 1992 to provide supported housing to women and children made homeless because of domestic violence. In 2008, Sonas provided supported accommodation to 61 women and 88 children. There are options.